

Public Records

All public records of Converse County, Wyoming are filed at the Converse County Courthouse located at 107 N 5th Street, Douglas, Wyoming. These records are maintained in accordance with Wyoming State Statutes 16-4-201 through 16-4-205.

While some information may be available online, for the most part, interested individuals must access the public records at the courthouse.

Fees for copies or other types of data transmittal, while minimal, may vary according to the type of record being reproduced and the office where it originated. Inquiries about costs, etc, should be directed to the specific county office that holds the record.